

2021-2022 TSIA 2.0 Administration Dates

Students in grades 9 and 10 will have a minimum of two testing opportunities for TSIA2 for Reading. Students in grades 9 or 10 who have passed the TSIA2 for Reading will have the opportunity to test for Math. Per the Judson ISD TSIA2 test administration procedure for 2021-2022, students who do not pass a portion of the TSIA2 will not be eligible to re-test for a minimum of two weeks. Students who do not pass the same section of TSIA2 on two consecutive tries will not be eligible to re-test (third attempt) for a minimum of 90 days.

Students in grade 11 will have a minimum of two testing opportunities for TSIA2 for Math. Per the Judson ISD TSIA2 test administration procedure for 2021-2022, students who do not pass a portion of the TSIA2 will not be eligible to re-test for a minimum of two weeks. Students who do not pass the same section of TSIA2 on two consecutive tries will not be eligible to re-test (third attempt) for a minimum of 90 days.

Due to the Judson ISD test administration procedure, the specific dates for TSIA2 administration will vary depending on the student's individual circumstance. Students will be automatically registered for the next testing opportunity based on the results of the prior administration. All students who are required to re-test for one or both sections of TSIA2 will be provided weekly intervention and practice during the Enrichment period.
